General Planning Guidelines

Successful outcomes are usually determined by detailed planning and effective execution. The individual responsible for an American Legion function must establish an appropriate team to handle the various details of the planning and execution phases. Team members should be familiar with American Legion protocol. Most visitations are joint so the involvement of the entire Legion family is also important to ensure that information is disseminated to all. It is important to remember that the same recognition and courtesies are extended to the dignitaries from each faction of the Legion family. The Event Chairman must communicate frequently with the County/District Protocol Chairs to ensure that the event follows proper procedures. Following are issues which should be addressed in the selection of team members and the planning and conduct of American Legion Functions.

- Confirmation of Date: This is a critical issue, often overlooked. In the case of a National Commander's Visitation, for instance, his/her visit is part of a country-wide itinerary established well in advance, and it determines the schedules for many other Department of New York representatives. For a Department Commander's Visitation, it must be communicated through the County Visitation Form (see Appendix "I"). Schedules sometimes change, so we must be alert to any changes and their implications.
- Site Selection (pg. 3): The function site selection depends upon its purpose. Generally it should be in a central location, readily accessible to those attending and be located near housing facilities that are adequate to house a traveling party. The facility should be able to support the size of the audience. Considerations: room layout requirements, proper public address equipment, adequate parking, etc. This is preferably an American Legion Post, but site selection should be based upon the suitability of the facility.
- Event Chair: This is a key individual. The event chair should have prior experience with planning and conducting the type of function in question and should have a proven track record of managing a functional team, motivating other team members to perform their assigned tasks correctly and advising them appropriately.
- Dinner Chair (pgs. 5&6, Appendices A, B, C, and F): must be able to manage all details of dinner planning with either the host Post or the event facility management. Responsibilities can include tickets, ensuring proper room layout, head table arrangement, reserved tables, seating, menu planning, flowers and decorations, program development, etc.
- Communications Chair (Pg. 7, Appendices G, H, I 1-2): This responsibility should include both internal American Legion communications (including the American Legion Auxiliary, The Sons of The American Legion and The American Legion Riders) and public relations activities. This position should be filled by someone with excellent communications skills and past history of working with the media.
- Itinerary Chair (Pg. 4): This responsibility should include transportation, coordination of any tours to be conducted, rooming, special parking, etc.
- Master of Ceremonies (Pg 8, Appendices D1-4, and E): Must be an effective public speaker and familiar with American Legion Protocol.
- Color Guard: Posting of colors enhances any American Legion function and should be included whenever possible.

A detailed description of the individual responsibilities of team members follows on the noted pages and in the noted appendices.

General Visitation Protocol

Following protocol enables American Legion activities to proceed smoothly and predictably and serves to provide the courtesies that we should extend to one another. It enhances the image of The American Legion to the benefit of everyone associated or touched by its activities and functions.

Speaking Protocol

Protocol helps to make American Legion functions proceed smoothly and expeditiously. Generally, all speeches should be brief with a simple and clear message. This will help to keep the interest of the audience.

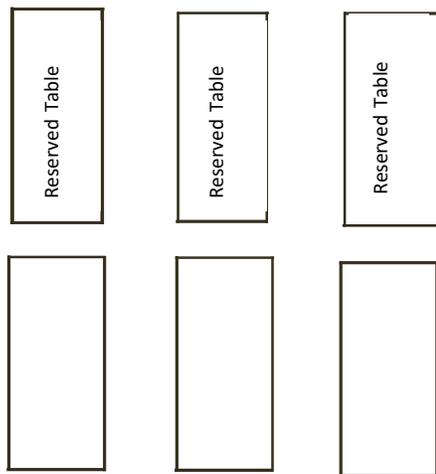

Topic	Guideline
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speaking Order 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · The main speaker/guest of honor speaks last as he/she will receive the longest speech of introduction and their address will conclude the speaking portion of the program
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Speeches of Introduction 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Should be brief, to-the-point · Refrain from reciting biographical data, use anecdotes when appropriate · Length of speech of introduction varies with respect to the rank of the individual being introduced; the highest-ranking guest receives the longest speech of introduction
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Introduction of Head Table 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Generally done by the Master of Ceremonies · Order of introduction starts with speaker's extreme left, working toward the center, then with speaker's extreme right, working toward the center · Introductions should be brief - names and titles/functions. Refrain from lengthy introductions of any particular individual
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Order of Introductions 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> · Are generally done in order of rank within the organization, from low to high: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Local dignitaries, non-American Legion guests, Legion Riders, S.A.L. Officers - Local, District, Department, National Auxiliary Officers - Local, District, Department, National American Legion Officers - Local, District, Department, National American Legion Officers are usually introduced in the order by which they're installed into office: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Sergeant-at-Arms Service Officer Historian Judge Advocate Chaplain Treasurer Adjutant Vice-Commander Commander If NEC or Alternate NEC is present, this officer should be introduced just prior to the Department Commander

Room Layout Guidelines

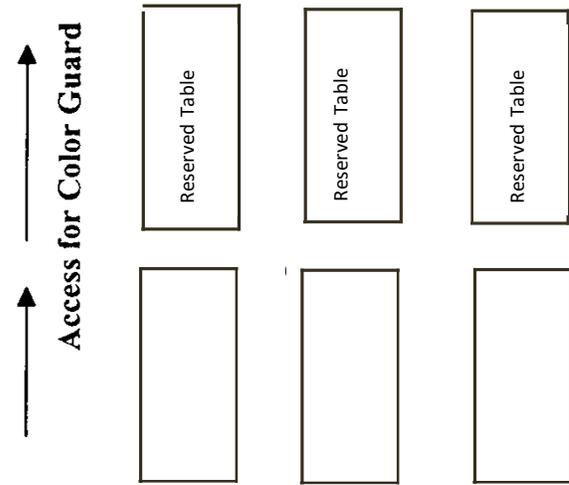

Proper room layout enables the audience to participate fully and serves to establish an appropriate atmosphere for the occasion. The total number of guests at the head table is up to the host organization however a good rule of thumb is that at a minimum the head table should accommodate the following: National Commanders visitation to the District, no one lower in office than the District Commander, the District President, the District Detachment Commander and the District Chaplains should be seated. For the Department Commanders visit to the county, no one lower than the County Commander, County President, the County Detachment Commander and the County Chaplains should be seated.

POW/MIA REMEMBRANCE SERVICE

The following is a suggested POW/MIA Remembrance Service to be used at American Legion meetings, banquets, luncheons or memorial gatherings in conjunction with the POW/MIA flag draped over an empty chair. The service can be adopted or modified appropriately. Members should remove their caps during this service however the option to have the audience remain standing while the service is conducted is at the discretion of the host organization.

Those who have served, and those currently serving in the uniformed services of the United States, are ever mindful that the sweetness of enduring peace has always been tainted by the bitterness of personal sacrifice. We are compelled to never forget that while we enjoy our daily pleasures, there are others who have endured and may still be enduring the agonies of pain, deprivation and imprisonment.

Before we begin our activities, we pause to recognize our POWs and MIAs.

We call your attention to this small table which occupies a place of dignity and honor. It is set for one, symbolizing the fact that members of our armed forces are missing from our ranks. They are referred to as POWs and MIAs.

We call them comrades. They are unable to be with their loved ones and families, so we join together to pay humble tribute to them, and to bear witness to their continued absence.

The table is small, symbolizing the frailty of one prisoner, alone against his or her suppressors.

The tablecloth is white, symbolic of the purity of their intentions to respond to their Country's call to arms. The single rose in the vase signifies the blood they may have shed in sacrifice to ensure the freedom of our beloved United States of America. This rose also reminds us of the family and friends of our missing comrades who keep faith, while awaiting their return.

The red ribbon on the vase represents an unyielding determination for a proper accounting of our comrades who are not among us.

A slice of lemon on the plate reminds us of their bitter fate.

The salt sprinkled on the plate reminds us of the countless fallen tears of families as they wait.

The glass is inverted, they cannot toast with us at this time.

The chair is empty. They are NOT here. The candle is reminiscent of the light of hope, which lives in our hearts to illuminate their way home, away from their captors, to the open arms of a grateful nation.

The American flag reminds us that many of them may never return – and have paid the supreme sacrifice to insure our freedom.

Let us pray to the Supreme Commander that all of our comrades will soon be back within our ranks.

Let us remember – and never forget their sacrifice.

May God forever watch over them and protect them and their families.

Legion Cap Etiquette

The American Legion Cap is both symbolic and illustrative to Legionnaires and conveys a distinct message to the general public about American Legion membership. The cap should be decorated in accordance with the guidelines of Resolution 31, July 1967, of The Department of New York. It must be neat and orderly in its appearance.

Women Legionnaires may remain covered at all times, generally following the directives of uniformed military personnel regarding headgear.

Male Legionnaires may wear the Legion Cap at all times during Legion functions except for:

- Religious segments of functions such as Invocations and Benedictions and other prayer
- Memorial to Departed Comrades
- Recital of the Pledge of Allegiance
- Playing of the National Anthem
- As routine courtesy during dining
- During the POW/MIA Remembrance Service

Masters of Ceremony or Meeting Chairs should remind attendees to uncover during the above activities.

Cap over Heart

The Cap should be worn in church only by the Honor Guard or Color Guard while in marching order or standing guard. When returning to or while seated in pews, the Cap should be removed.

Legionnaires not in formation will remove the Cap while in church.

Legionnaires will hold their Cap over their heart in the following instances:

- If marching in formation into church, until seated in the pew and as exiting the church
- Approaching a casket. (Note that the Cap over the heart is a form of salute. If a Legionnaire desires to render a hand salute at the casket of a Departed Comrade, he/she may cover, salute, and then uncover).
- At graveside, during the entire service, except for cold or inclement weather when the Cap should not be doffed
- Religious segments of Legion functions such as Invocations, Benedictions and other prayer
- Pledge of Allegiance (Female Legionnaires will place their hand over their heart if covered)
- National Anthem (Female Legionnaires should render a hand salute and not sing if covered)
- Memorial to Departed Comrade(s)
- POW/MIA Remembrance Service

Cap Embellishments:

Pins, patches and other items should be kept to a minimum and are never placed on the left side (side with the Legion Emblem) of the cap.

Flag Etiquette

Our Nation's Colors are one of the most revered symbols for Legionnaires. We must pay proper respect to the Flag whenever it is encountered. As we approach the Flag or as it approaches us, it is appropriate to render a salute. If under cover (wearing the Legion Cap), a hand salute is given. If not wearing the Legion Cap, recognize the Flag by placing the right hand over the heart. The following are general guidelines. Much more detailed information may be found on the website.

When observing parades, there are often several units carrying our Nation's Colors. As the Flag approaches (approximately 20-30 feet away) render the appropriate salute, holding the salute until the Colors pass. When participating in a parade, as the marching unit approaches stationary Colors, the unit leader should call "eyes right" or "eyes left" (according to the flags location) and order a hand salute until the unit passes the Colors.

At outdoor American Legion functions where the Colors are flying, a hand salute is rendered at the beginning and conclusion of the function. A hand salute is rendered during the hoisting or lowering of Colors, as applicable.

During indoor functions, when our Nation's Colors are to be posted, a hand salute is ordered by the Master of Ceremonies while the Colors are being posted at the beginning of the function and when they are retired at the end of the function.

During indoor functions while Colors are already posted, Legionnaires should render an appropriate salute when exiting and re-entering the meeting room. This should be done at the center of the room or, if that is not practical, at the point closest to the exit while still in view of the flag. Travel to and from the head table should be done around the end opposite the Nation's Colors. This is important for those called to the podium to speak or to receive awards or recognition. Never pass between the Colors and the Commander's station (cutting the flag).

Presentation of Gifts

Utilize the form located on the web site in the resources area (Dept Commander's Gift Form) to record all gifts received at the event. It is advisable to obtain this information prior to the start of the event so that the MC knows if gifts are going to be presented to all of the honored guests. This will prevent them from being called to the podium for receipt of a gift when there is not one.
